POST Correspondent

NICOSIA, Saturday. — An Israel trade delegation is expected to arrive here soon for discussions with the Chamber of Commerce and the Federation of Trade and Industry on increasing Cyprus exports to Israel. This follows a recent approach by the Chamber and the Financial Secretary of the Cyprus Government with a strong plea that facilities should be given to enable Cyprus to export more to Israel.

In 1951, Cyprus exported to Israel goods valued at £1,176,000. Exports this year so far show a marked reduction, due largely to Israel's exchange difficulties.

Song and Dance Greet the Law

Jerusalem POST Reporter

Moshe's sisters were still dancing in Jerusalem of four years ago, according to Private's "Moshe's" first communion. The dark blues of Moshe's dress, resounding with stamping, and song as hundreds of scrolls of the Lomé were being chanted high by an ecstatic throng; rabbis and scholars, in formal white and gold silk robes joined with the Bridgeman of the Lomé when, in every synagogue the last chapter ended and "In the Beginning" was chanted by the Bridgeman of Genesis.

Bar-headed children played up with their fathers, delightfully prancing round with flags and small red velvet covered scrolls of the Prophets (Nevi'im) which they helped to sing for the yearly cycle of scriptures. Women and women-folk had to contend with peering through barred windows of the synagogues — much to the disappointment of tourists and students from America who longed to join the rapturous circle of fire hats and silver Torah crowns. Tremolite rhythms and mingled Ashkenazic "sigdah" mingled with modern Israeli dances — according to the taste of visitors who had come from the parts of Jerusalem where merrymaking stopped at midnight.

Willow-leaves, stripped from their branches during Friday morning's symbolic ritual, lay strewn over the cobbled streets of Mea Shearim; to judge from the light-footed dance the Hasidim had well and truly cast away their sins on the morning of Hosannah Rabba.

Men Injured

Mr. Yitzhak Yaffe, 76, was seriously injured on Friday when he was hit by an Army vehicle while crossing Rehov Strauss in Jerusalem. He was taken to Hadassah Hospital here, where he died.

MASS SHOT DEAD

HAIFA, Saturday. — Shots fired by unknown persons killed Selim Yusuf Maslavi of Kfar Abu Sham, near Acre, shortly after noon yesterday. Three suspects have been arrested.

Life Term for Murder Of Jewish Doctor

KABUL, Saturday (Reuters). — A German court here yesterday sentenced Herbert Blaschke, former leader and member of the Nazi SS, to life imprisonment for murdering a Jewish doctor in 1944.

Blaschke, aged 42, was convicted of murdering Dr. Lazarus Glueckstein, lower classman, during the revolt of Dr. Rehavai, former leader of the Nazi SS.

In 1941, Cyprus exported to Israel goods valued at £1,176,000. Exports this year so far show a marked reduction, due largely to Israel's exchange difficulties.

Total Harrow Dead Estimated At 110

LONDON, Saturday (Reuters). — One hundred and ten people are now known to have lost their lives in the triple train disaster at Harrow on Wednesday.

Work was still going on to clear the site remaining wreckage, and to repair the broken tracks.

Huge mobile cranes were being brought into position for an attempt to lift a derailed engine car of the line.

Rothschild School Is Short of Funds

LONDON, Saturday (DNA). — Doubts as to whether the Rothschild School of the Ministry of Education and Travel Commission, foundations such as WIZO and Hadassah, the Ministry of Finance, and the State Comptroller, the chief controller of the budget, would be available for the coming year, to enable tourists and travel agencies to gain tourist permits at the European tourist conferences in Italy, which were trying to increase tourism to the country.

A committee would be established in the U.S. to attract tourists from there.

There had been only a small decline in the number of visitors to Israel this year, and a slight increase in tourists from this year, but it was hoped to double or even triple this income next year.

Reports of discrimination in his Ministry against any sector other than the vital sector were completely unfounded, Dr. Joseph said sharply. The allegation of funds from that part of the development budget, which came under his jurisdiction, was handled by an official who did not belong to the "Histadrut sector," he said, and figured proved the fulness of the reports. In heavy industry, 52.6

The Minister strongly denied reports of bribery and corruption in his Ministry, and said that the public should lodge official complaints of any sort abuse. Individual cases might exist, and would be tracked down if reported, he said, but he thought that wholesale accusations should not be made. "I know of one newspaper which sells part of its newspaper officially allocated to it, but I would not say that the whole press is corrupt," the Minister said.

Questioned about the present financial situation of the school, he said that hot climates bring tourists to develop a general interest.

He said that the school had the right to be associated with the business world.
